I'm willing to send you a trial subscription of Interviews With Renegade Wizards monthly CD interview program.

Here's why and what it will do for you...

When I first started on the path to success and creating a life on my own terms, one of the single most important things I did was to find, meet and learn from people who were already having the kind of success I wanted.

Of course I put in a lot of hard work and dedication...

But my biggest breakthroughs followed after observing successful people who were “true wizards” at creating their own kind of life. So I began my own journey to discover exactly what they did to give them that power. I wanted to KNOW what made them have so much more enlightened success than the rest of us.

And I firmly believed in one thing...

If these people could do it, then so could I... if I knew their secrets.

And here's something else I firmly believe. If I can learn from them and achieve the same results... which I did... then so can you! You see...

Learning from those who have traveled the path you want to take will make ALL the difference in your success.

Quite simply you'll be leveraging your time! I can't tell you how many YEARS of time and effort this saved me. How much it reduced my learning curve... or even if I would have EVER reached success without taking advantage of learning from successful people.

This is so important, and SO effective, I started tracking down as many of these masters as possible. And I make every effort to persuade them to “spill their guts” for your benefit and success!

The result?

Every month I do a live audio interview with a carefully chosen success superstar who has achieved an amazingly inspired and successful life.

And here's how it works!

Right now you'll ONLY pay $5.00 to cover shipping and handling. And I'll send you a one-month FREE subscription to my Interview Series plus all the bonuses I already told you about.

Maybe you're wondering why I'm so confident and willing to give you $267.97 worth of bonuses just for test-driving my Interview Series? It's really a complete no-brainer!

It's simply because I'm so positive you're gonna LOVE these interviews. I'm positive they'll make a profound difference in your life. And you'll want to stick around for a very long time. It is that simple.

If you love them (which you will)... keep them and stay subscribed. And each month I'll send you another interview. You'll automatically be charged only $19.95 US for each month. And... you can cancel anytime you want with no questions or hassles.

And like I already said, the FREE bonuses are yours to keep forever!

But I understand that not everyone will be quite ready to take responsibility for their lives. I know everyone isn't at the same level of development. In short... I know the Renegade Wizard Interview Series may not be for you. So...

If you get the first interview and don't love them, or get the success you want with the material you learn... and you're not completely thrilled and excited about the next one coming... then you can cancel and keep the first month's interview FOR FREE just for TRYING it. Plus all the incredible bonuses are yours to keep and use.

There it is! That's my ONE TIME OFFER for you, today.

Remember... it's totally RISK FREE and you have absolutely nothing to lose. And of course you have everything in life to gain!

I wish you the very best that life has to offer...

David Kendall
